ON THE ROAD To The Title

Round 9 got under way in wet conditions on Good Friday, with the game between Eastern Suburbs and Macarthur Rams falling victim of the weather.

The clash, due to be played at David Phillips Field, was called off due to a water-logged pitch.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 5 Leichhardt Tigers 1

Bonnyrigg bounced back from their Round 8 defeat at Blacktown to demolish Leichhardt Tigers 5-1. The Tigers usually solid defence had no answer to Bonnyrigg's Colin Luff, who doubled his tally for the season in scoring four times. Partner in crime Robert Gomez also helped himself to a goal, while for Leichhardt Vice Savocca scored in the last minute.

It was a game to forget for Leichhardt, who also had Hassan Kdouh sent off in the first half.

The first 15 minutes of the game certainly didn't give any indication of what was to follow, as a tight contest looked set to develop. Indeed, it was the Tigers who looked dangerous early on, with Mite Talcevski causing problems.

Chris Lansdown had the first effort on goal for the Tigers, forcing a good save from Bonnyrigg's Sasha Bozic. Leichhardt's goalkeeper Frank Mikuletic also saved well from Paul Dee, but from the resulting corner Luff got his first of the night, driving home through a crowd of players.

Luff's second came just three minutes later, Javier Mancino setting up the White Eagles striker to delightfully chip the ball over Mikuletic and into the goal.

It was still even at this stage, and the Tigers were unlucky when Boudaher's shot was pushed superbly onto the post by Bozic, with Lansdown not quite being able to control the rebound.

Kdouh earned himself two yellow cards in as many minutes before the break, leaving his team down to 10 men and two goals down.

Bonnyrigg understandably went on the attack in the second period, withskipper Paul Richardson again outstanding. A delightful third came after 53 minutes, and involved Luff, Dee, a Mancino dummy leaving Robbie Gomez to fire home.

Luff showed his confidence after 65 minutes to claim his hat-rick, a neat chip making it 4-0. His fourth just three minutes later owed much to Mark Racker, whose left-wing cross could have been converted by any number of White Eagles players.

At 5-0 Bonnyrigg went into cruise mode, and to Leichhardt's credit they never gave up and went close to snatching a goal when an Eric Hristodoulou effort was tipped over by Bozic. Bozic was helpless however to stop Savocca's late header to make it 5-1 to the home side.

Bankstown City Lions 1 Blacktown City Demons 2

Two goals from Blacktown's Jason Bennett sealed this one, although it took a winner just ten minutes from time to clinch the three points.

Bankstown went into the game in good form, while Blacktown were fresh from there four goal haul against Bonnyrigg. The strike power from both sides on show was there for all to see; Zoki Adioski, Jon Angelucci, George Issa and Jason Bennett.

Blacktown started brightly and went in front after just five minutes, a superb cross enabling Bennett to score his first with a neat header. Blacktown looked bright early on, but Bankstown got level after good work involving Mile Todoroski, Robert Issa and Tony Josevski enabled Adioski to claim his sixth of the season.

Todoroski's involvement in the game ended however on the stroke of half time. Booked just two minutes before, the caretaker player/coach saw red for another bookable offence. Despite that, Adioski was still able to hot the post before the half-time whistle blew.

Blacktown pressed strongly for a winner in the second half, dominating the play although Bankstown did create some good chances. Just when it looked like the Lions might hold out for a point, up popped Bennett with his second to make it 2-1 and give his team another three points, as last year's Grand Final winners start to take on an ominous look.

Canterbury Marrickville 0 Ryde City 0

Mark Fowler was at Henson Park

There was little to warm either the body or heart at Henson Park on a miserable Good Friday afternoon. Although the pitch held up remarkably well after hosting four games before the main event, a combination of driving rain, cold conditions and good defending made this a match to forget for the neutral - if there is such a thing in soccer.

Canterbury Marrickville went into this game fresh from being the victims of Eastern Suburbs first win of the season, while Ryde had just failed to score for the first time this season. These ingredients weren't helped with the sight of ace striker Jim Nikas sat on the bench for Canterbury Marrickville, a knock preventing him from playing the full 90 minutes.

In a stop-start affair it was hard for any attacking players to stand out, although Jason Lal tried hard for Ryde, while Talceski and Zoran Ilic had good games in the Canterbury engine room, swopping positions with each other and interchanging well. Both defences let little past, and when they did two confident goalkeepers meant that any goal would prove precious.

The first half was a forgettable affair, although a scramble in the Ryde area after 17 minutes and then a Steve Christoforidis effort two minutes later that clipped the outside of the post suggested better was ahead. At this stage although Ryde looke slightly the better balenced team it was Canterbury Marrickville who looked to be the team who might score. Indeed, after 26 minutes they should have. After being caught offside a number of times they broke through with George Kategiannis, but Les Bihari in Ryde's goal blocked well.

Two minutes before the break a superb turn by Paul Watkins was equalled with a dangerous cross, although Canterbury Marrickville scrambled the ball clear. Minutes later Adam Peatey's free kick, headed back by Lal seemed to give Scott Ollerenshaw a golden chance as he slid in to try and turn the ball goalwards. How close he came only he will know, as the ball just eluded him with the goal empty.

A Ryde effort after five minutes was well saved by Tolios, then Canterbury Marrickville enjoyed their best period. A half-cleared corner was blasted just wide by the home team, then Bihari saved two efforts well in the space of two minutes. Ryde were then denied by Tolios who slid out feet first to snuff out any danger, and with that came the last real hope of the game.

A game to forget although Ryde's defence looked solid as a unit, and if Canterbury Marrickville's Terry Palpanis put a foot wrong all game then this observer didn't see it.

Canterbury Marrickville: Tolios, Palpanis, Percy, Talceski, (Bosevski, Raeburn, Christoforidis, Markopoulos, Kategiannis (Nikas), Ilic (Nasser), Malachino

Ryde City: Bihari, Cowley, Moffit, Watkins, Koch, Segreto, Lal (Cetinay), Ollerenshaw (Glucina), Elveren (Nicol), Portelli

Parramatta Eagles 6 Sutherland Sharks 0

11 goals scored and none conceded in their last two home games means Parramatta have firmly put behind them their previous goal-scoring worries.

Grant Bard, the only Eagles player before this game to have scored more than once this season, started off the bench, but five other players got in on the scoring act.

Two goals from Adam Anderson, who also set one up, plus one each from Paul O'Grady, Saso Boskovski, Alex Araujo and Anthony Mittiga sealed the victory over the struggling Sharks.

The first goal came after 32 minutes, a corner not properly cleared was met by the big stopper O'Grady, to give him his second goal in three games and make it 1-0. Just eight minutes later Anderson notched up his first, before the talented Anthony Mittiga slotted the ball home after 42 minutes to make it 3-0. It got worse for the Sharks however, as the rampant Eagles scored their third in four minutes when Anderson scored a classy goal to make the half-time score 4-0.

Ten minutes after the break it was 5-0, industrious midfielder Saso Boskovski netting, and after 63 minutes it was 6-0, Araujo finishing after good work by Boskovski.

Fairfield Bulls 4 Central Coast 1

Mark Hoenselaars joined teammate Matthew Borg on seven Super League goals after this round 9 clash, netting a hat-rick to put the Bulls on top of the table after Macarthur's game was washed out.

The Coasties had little to cheer in this one, although Nathan Byrn netted a consolation and his sixth of the season.

The Coasties started well, but after 16 minutes the immaculate George Zabatakis put through a superb ball, and Hoenselaars rounded Steve Angelov in the Coasties goal to make it 1-0. Ten minutes later it was 2-0 to the Bulls, Hoenselaars beating two players before finishing clinically.

The Coasties got back into it after 36 minutes through Byrn, but just four minutes later Hoenselaars netted his and Fairfield's third.

Their was just one goal in the second half, Chris Giometti netting his first of the season to make the final score 4-1.

The action continued in Round 10 played on Easter Sunday and Monday as well.

Canterbury-Marrickville's Zoran Ilic (White) looks to skip past Ryde's Scott Ollerenshaw

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2 Ryde City 1

Bonnyrigg White Eagles made it a happy Easter by picking up their second win in three days. After beating Leichhardt 5-1 on Good Friday, this time it was Ryde who returned home empty-handed, 2-1. Although striker Colin Luff couldn't repeat his four goal haul of two days previous, strikes from Ben Green and James Warburton cancelled out an early penalty by Ryde's John Koch.

The penalty came after 25 minutes after Warburton was adjudged to have fouled Rob Portelli, and Koch converted his second penalty of the season.

The lead lasted only four minutes however, the impressive Ben Green heading home a Mark Racker cross.

The winner for Bonnyrigg came with just 15 minutes later on a game that took plenty out of both sets of players. This time it was Green the provider, flicking on a Robert Gomez corner for Warburton to head home.

Sutherland Sharks 3 Eastern Suburbs 2

Peter Smith and Greg Stock were at Seymour Shaw Park

Sutherland's flagging Easter fortunes changed in a dramatic eleven minute period at Seymour Shaw Park on Monday afternoon. After being whalloped 6 goals to nil on Saturday and staring at a scoreborad reading Eastern Suburbs 2 Sutherland 1 with a quarter of an hour to go, their collective necks were on the line.

Easts to their credit had deserved their two goals and by their coaches admission probably should have had a few more. For vast periods in the match they had dominated the play and created many oppurtunities to goal but either their final touch or the brilliance of Sharks goalkeeper Dennis Olla had denied them. Their midfield of Vadim Mikoutski and Steve McCombe had worked tirelessly to give forwards Steve Lawrence and Manny Matakidis some good quality ball in the wet and slippery conditions but it was two Sharks players who came off the bench that proved the difference in the two sides.

Firstly Bideau in the 79th minute turned in an Eduardo Giraldo cross and then 16 year old teenager Kris Karanasis grabbed the Sharks the full three points when he placed Levi Stephen's cross in traffic in the 86th minute.

John Callega the Eastern Suburbs coach was understandably disappointed with the result. He described their defence in parts as 'schoolboyish' and said they hadn't gone on with the job in the second half. He pointed at Con Anastasiadis as one of the Wanderers best but with Adam Mark again keeping a clean sheet for the second week running it augers well for a fierce battle for the number one shirt. At half time he spoke of their position on the ladder and the opportunities in the second half to improve but in a game they probably should have won they literally self destructed. John Lavin the Sharks coach was also in agreement. They got some breaks from the opposition he said but the Sharks still have much work to do to make a reasonable fist of a long season.

Although Easts started strongly with a free kick hitting the bar in the first minute it was Sutherland who got on the board first. Craig Hobbs outfoxed the Easts defence close to the by line on a wet pitch and somehow managed to turn the ball back to his striking partner Cord Tolson in traffic. Tolson made no mistake with his strike and it was 1-0 after 14 minutes. Two minutes later the Easts midfield who were starting to find their feet gave wingback Peter Pullicino some space on the right with a well worked pass. Pullicino timed his cross to find Vadim Mikoutski who nailed his drive superbly to find the net. For the large part of the first half Eastern Suburbs dominated but it wasn't until the 38th minute that Steve Lawrence accepted a pass amongst a group of Sharks defenders and with a hint of offside placed his shot in traffic beyond Olla.

In the second half all was going to script for the Easts coaching staff, all apart from another couple of goals. With a mountain of possession they had enough opportunities to win three matches but sadly couldn't muster a decisive blow. In the 60th minute John Lavin replaced Jimmy Corbo with Malcolm Bideau in midfield and then six minutes later swapped Karanasis for the hardworking Tolson. These two moves were the masterstrokes that allowed the Sharks back into a match they weren't entitled to win and ultimately to steal all three points from under the noses of an unlucky Eastern Suburbs.

Sutherland: Olla, Richardson, Summers, Markopoulos, Stephen, Hobbs, Moszny, Corbo (Bideau 60'), Pillay, Giraldo, Tolson (Karanasis 66').

Eastern Suburbs: Anastasiadis, Pullicino (Jerkovic 68'), Darvill, Lawrence (Beldam 79'), Ekinci, Imaya, Sevares, McCombe, Mitakidis, Nicholls, Mikoutski.

Macarthur Rams 0
Canterbury Marrickville 1

Canterbury Marrickville had a shock 1-0 away victory against the high-flying Macarthur Rams on Easter Sunday. An early Zoran Ilic goal proved the difference between the two teams, as the Berries turned what could have been an ordinary Easter period after their scoreless draw with Ryde City into a most profitable one.

The prospect of playing Eastern Suburbs and Canterbury Marrickville over the Easter period must have left most Macarthur Rams fans thinking that six points were on the cards, but a postponement against Eastern Suburbs followed by this disappointing loss means they have slipped behind the Fairfield Bulls at the top of the table.

The top of the table Round 10 match between Blacktown City v Fairfield was unfortunately washed out, as was Central Coast v Parramatta.

Leichhardt Tigers 3
Bankstown City Lions 3

Both teams picked up their first point of the Easter weekend, drawing 3-3 at Lambert Park. The Under 18 and Under 21 fixtures were washed out so the first grade game could go ahead, and Zoki Adioski for Bankstown made it 1-0 to the visitors after just 12 minutes. It was tit-for-tat after that, Sarkis Boudaher equalising for the Tigers after 35 minutes, but Alex Trposki restored Bankstown's lead. That lasted just six minutes however, as David James made it 2-2, then it was 3-2 Leichhardt after 70 minutes when Leon Alexiou scored.

Just five minutes after that the scoring was concluded when Mendeski made it 3-3.

ROUND Eleven PREVIEW

Fairfield Bulls v Leichhardt Tigers

Top of the table, unbeaten at home and with two of the Super League's top scorers playing up-front. It dosen't get much better than this, although the way the Bulls are travelling at the moment it may very well do.

Leichhardt came back from their 5-1 thrashing against Bonnyrigg to draw with Bankstown 3-3. Its a surprise to see the Tigers leaking eight goals in two games, and against the Bulls attack they may very well conceed some more.

Macarthur Rams v Sutherland Sharks

Macarthur had a miserable Easter, and they will have been shocked to lose against Canterbury Marrickville. While their unbeaten record at home may have gone they should be too strong for the Sharks here.

A great comeback for the Sharks, after being mauled 6-0 and 2-1 down against Eastern Suburbs, they showed great spirit to come back to win 3-2. They will need all that resolve here.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles v Canterbury Marrickville

Bonnyrigg White Eagles will be full of confidence after two good wins over the Easter weekend. Striker Colin Luff took his tally for the season to 8, and another home game here will see the fans expecting another three points.

Canterbury Marrickville will be bouyed after their superb win at Macarthur, which means they remain in mid table and in striking reach of the top teams.

They can't afford many more losses, and will be hard pushed to repeat their Easter Sunday performance here against another in-form team.

Bankstown City Lions v Ryde City

A tough time for the Lions losing their coach, but a fighting draw against the Tigers will help them. Still a team who can beat anyone convincingly when on song, they will look for all three points here.

Ryde picked up just the one point from their two Easter games, and will not be relishing another away trip. Their solid defence will be tested at Jensen Park.

Blacktown City v Parramatta Eagles

Blacktown would have enjoyed taking on Fairfield Bulls over Easter, in what would have been a cracking battle. This will be equally tough against the Eagles, but one would expect home advantage to see the Demons home in the game of the round.

Parramatta Eagles have scored 11 in their last two home games, but need to start picking up some points on their travels to move up the table. This will be a tough place to start that winning away run though.

Eastern Suburbs v Central Coast

Eastern Suburbs were close to making it two from two against Sutherland Sharks, but ended up with nothing. This is a real six-pointer for them against the Coasties, and they will know the importance of picking up the points here.

Central Coast are going backwards results wise, and like Eastern Suburbs will see this game as a good way of picking up three points. After a positive start to the season the Coasties need to pick up points quickly and may get one here.

World Youth Championships

The World Youth Championships are well and truly under way in Nigeria, with Australia having played one and won one at the time of writing. Their 3-1 victory over Saudi Arabia was a perfect start for the Young Socceroos, with goals from Jason Culina, John Maisano and an own goal sealing a fine victory.

Super Soccer will bring you the news as it comes to hand, and although a second game against Mexico will have been played by the time of printing, what could be a crucial game will against the Republic of Ireland will be played shown live on SBS at 12:30am Sunday April 11.

Super Soccer will also look at some of the stars of the Young Socceroos, starting with Brett Emerton.

Words of Advice: "Work hard and believe in yourself"

Q How are things shaping up for this World Youth Championship?
A In camp everyone looked fairly sharp and fit and that's something we're building on a daily basis. There's also a good camaraderie amongst the boys, so the general mood is a good one. We haven't spoken about any particular teams at the moment we're concentrating on our own team, our team shape and how we are going to play in the championship.

Q What does it mean to you to represent Australia?
A It means more than anything in the world. As a kid growing up it was always the dream to represent your country. Now I'm here doing it, and it doesn't matter how many times you play for Australia, pulling on the green and gold is special every time.

Q Who would be your 'stand-out' player of the Under-20s squad?
A Vince Grella. He's been playing in Italy and just in training I could notice the difference, the passion and hunger he has for the game - you see him working hard and it makes you want to work hard - he brings all the players up to his level of standard.

Q What does the future hold for Brett Emerton?
A Obviously my main concern is to do well in the Youth Championships in Nigeria and then go back to Australia and do well in the final series. Once the season is over, it will be time to sit down and have a good look at myself and see what's best for my interests. I'm with Sydney Olympic for another season, and I did that deliberately to stay in the country in the lead up to the 2000 games - you want to be playing regularly to be considered for the Olympic team. I also feel as current captain of the Olyroos, it's good to have an Australian-based captain.

With a First Division Select squad due to go to New Caledonia from Wednesday April 21 to Monday April 25 to play two games against the hosts National Team, Super Soccer's GREG STOCK looks at the history of the excellent relationship between Australian soccer and New Caledonia.

Australia's first foray to New Caledonia occurred way back in 1933. Team captain Roy Crowhurst led the national side to Noumea where they were undefeated in four games against the New Caledonian national eleven. The side traveled there and back by boat and included Australia's oldest living Socceroo of today Jimmy Osborne making his Socceroo debut at left half.

Seventeen years later in 1950 an Australian XI again traveled to Noumea where on September 19 they were surprised and beaten 1-0 by a local New Caledonian XI. In the remaining three games Australia won just one and went home with their tales firmly between their legs.

On the state scene the first tour of New Caledonia occurred in October 1964 when the N.S.W. representative side toured the country playing matches against all manner of local opposition sides. With such talents in the team as Ron Lord, Les Scheinflug, Johnny Warren and Johnny Watkiss it was little wonder the side went through undefeated. The return visit to Australia by the New Caledonian national side happened in October of 1965 which saw them play for the first time under floodlights. Two losses against a Sydney Under 20 XI 3-1 and club side A.P.I.A. 5-2 was expected but at Wentworth Park on October 10th they surprised an under done N.S.W. XI by fighting back from 1-2 down to win 4 goals to 2. The N.S.W. side coached Tiko Jelisavcic took the match way too easily and were out played by the enthusiasm of the visitors.

At the end of the 1966 season Sydney Hakoah were invited for an 'end of season' trip to Noumea to play the national team on the eve of the South Pacific championships. Hakoah's week long stay saw them draw their first game 3 all but defeat the locals in the second match 2 goals to nil.

Seventeen years had passed since a national side had been to Noumea but again the Socceroos tried to subdue the footballing locals. Invited in November 1967 to participate in a three nation tournament Australia sent its colts side or under 23s under the coaching of John 'Rags' Tatters. In the opening game the Australians were again surprised by enthusiastic opposition and were defeated 2 goals to 1. A 3-1 victory over New Zealand in the other match saw Australia finish second but interestingly this was the first time '74 World Cup hero Col Curran wore the green and gold strip as he excelledin both matches.

Two years later New Caledonia were back in Sydney to play three friendly matches in a week long tour. This time they struck a 'fired up' N.S.W. side who inflicted a 6-0 defeat on the visitors courtesy of a Ray Baartz hat trick and a Gary Manuel double. Against club sides Hakoah and South Coast United they fared little better going down 2-5 to Hakoah and 1-4 to South Coast to return to Noumea winless. In 1970 the relationship with the national side again continued when Australia included New Caledonia as part of their 1970 world tour. Under the coaching of Rale Rasic the Socceroos struggled in both games with the oppressive heat and the varying bounce of the pitches. However class told and the Socceroos defeated New Caledonia 3-1 and 1-0.

The New Caledonian club side 'Vallee du Tir' traveled to Australia for some friendly matches and training prior to th 1972 season. Their match against Sutherland at Seymour Shaw Park was a 1-0 win to the home side that included current Sutherland coach John Lavin in the Sharks midfield.

In would nine years before Australias footballing relationship with New Caledonia would see another meeting. This time it would the Young Socceroos travelling to Noumea to play the locals in an Oceania Cup game. Under the coaching of controversial German Rudi Gutendorf the Young Socceroos easily accounted for their pacific neighbours 8 goals to 0 with current Carlton coach Eddie Krncevic scoring a hat-trick with Ian Hunter and Paul Kay getting doubles. Australia were successful in the series beating Tahiti 4-2 in the final.

The Young Socceroos again travelled to Noumea for a series of three friendly matches in June of 1981. A 2-1 win to the Young 'Roos in the first game with a John Little double was followed by a 2-2 draw in the second. In the final match the locals were again out to regain some pride but were defeated by a Dennis Colusso goal to go down 1-0.

This match was to be the final time an Australian national team would travel to New Caledonia for a match. The Australia's under 16 side or 'Joeys' would meet their New Caledonian opposition in the 1983 Oceania Qualifiers in Auckland. Under coach Vic Dalgleish the 'Joeys' defeated New Caledonia 4 goals to nil with a double to current South Melbourne striker Paul Trimboli.

NSW FIRST DIVISION REVIEW

ILLAWARRA LIONS HUMBLE DULWICH HILL AT ARLINGTON MANLY AND ST GEORGE SMACK FOUR ON THEIR TRAVELS

The rain tumbled down and the pitches became treacherous to play on, but only one match had to be called off on the first two days of the Easter weekend.

Auburn found Mona Park closed to them for the Good Friday clash with Penrith Panthers, which looked an interesting game, as the visitors had not conceded a goal and were looking strong, while Auburn had a new coach, Henry Sobczyk, who took over on Tuesday night, having previously had the side at the end of last season.

Sobczyk is planning to bring in several new players, but most are former Auburn men who are returning to the club after a spell elsewhere.

The goals were in abundance on Friday and Saturday, with home teams having little luck in front of goal.

An exception was Rockdale Suns who broke through for their first win, in the process breaching the Stanmore defence three times, becoming the first side to put one past the Hawks 'keeper in four outings. The win was welcome news for player-coach Gerry Gomez, the 3-2 result keeping supporters of both sides well on their toes.

An early goal to Anthony Trieste and a second by John Manalopoulos put the home side ahead, but Eddie Briscoe pulled one back and it needed a penalty by Manalopoulos to right things again for the home side. Briscoe got a second for Stanmore in the last minute, also from the spot, but Rockdale was able to hang on.

The Rockdale attack was on fire and when Aleks Chumkovski cut the ball back from the left for Manalopoulos, who pushed it on to the right hand edge of the box where Trieste smashed the ball past Kyprianou for the 13th minute opener.

Peter Apolevski was again to the fore and set up chances early with Bill Petrovski and Sean Robertson both unlucky with their shooting. Malcolm Adams for Stanmore found Mark Afif in good touch as the Scotsman was twice denied by good saves from the Rockdale keeper in the 21st and 28th minutes.

In the 33rd Rockdale went further ahead after a typical Apolevski run and cross from the right which saw Manalopoulos turn the ball in from close range.

An interception by the Hawks gave Eddie Briscoe the opportunity to stretch the defence and go on and beat the keeper at the second attempt just a minute before the break and the game then hung in the balance.

Rockdale had to wait until the 71st minute to extend their lead again, when Manalopoulos put away a penalty having been brought down by the keeper.

Stanmore almost clawed their way back again when the fleet-footed Peter Kypreos broke through but Afif was able to get down well to block at his feet.

Rockdale player-coach Gomez was adjudged to have fouled inside the area with no more than 8 minutes remaining and Briscoe converted the spot kick to set up a frenetic finish.

With Stanmore pressing hard, they managed to win a free kick in the last 3 minutes and Briscoe's clever despatch cleared the wall, but a spectacular save from Afif allowed Rockdale to claim all three points.

Dulwich Hill were taken aback when Illawarra Lions raced to a quick lead against them at Arlington Oval and it was not their day at all, with a 5-2 win being recorded by the visitors.

Neither defence would have been happy with their performance, though of the two keepers the Illawarra man, Robert Raguz, made the more important saves.

A diagonal ball pushed through by Jim Mellisourgos found Robert Mihalov out on the right and after getting the better of his marker the Illawarra player sent a speculative shot from 25 yards into the far corner of the net.

This after just 17 minutes was followed by a header from Peter Antonopoulos, from a precision cross from the right by the club's surprise new signing Ricky Giometti.

After half an hour it was three as Sandro Borsato nodded a ball forward and the goal-hungry Mellisourgos dived into the opening and beat the keeper ith a sharp finish.

Borsato again did the leg work for Mellisourgos to get his team's fourth a minute before the break, with an angled finish from wide on the left.

Some dwelling on the ball by the Dulwich keeper in the 77th minute saw Mellisourgos dart through an opening between two defenders to steal the loose ball and bring up what was probably the easiest hat-trick he has ever scored.

Zlatko Momircevski toiled away all day for Dulwich and was rewarded in the 81st with a goal when he slid the ball in from a wide position and the same player put away a penalty with a few minutes to go, having, along with Modar Sultan, been denied several times by some fine keeping by Robert Raguz during a large number of raids on the Illawarra goal.

Dulwich coach Dennis Duarte was not impressed with the opposition and more concerned about his team's own defensive shortcomings. He also hopes to have some quality players available soon, including the return of a favourite son.

Bathurst were not so happy with proceedings at Alec Lamberton Park on Friday where they had a goal disallowed and were unable to capitalise on an early strike from Mark Rooke.

They could only manage a 1-1 draw with AC United, that club's second such result in as many games.

The equaliser came after 55 minutes when Gerry Sansone let fly from 35 yards and beat Bathurst keeper Matthew Baillie all ends up.

A C were under plenty of first half pressure, but keeper Andres Ferreiro was able to make some important saves and shots were also cleared off the line.

In a skilful game, which saw AC come into contention in the second half, honours were shared, but the late rally by Bathurst nearly brought them undone.

Manly, for whom Dean Harding claimed a hat-trick, were much too quick for the Hurstville City Minotaurs in a Friday game switched very later from Hurstville Oval to Ernie Smith Reserve.

Bathurst were not so happy with proceedings at Alec Lamberton Park on Friday where they had a goal disallowed and were unable to capitalise on an early strike from Mark Rooke.

It was clear from the outset that Manly would be a handful for the experienced Minotaurs defence and it only took 90 seconds for Andy Townsend to send a looping header over John Mylonas after Tom Mikulski had done well on the left and delivered a perfect cross to the centre of the goal.

After 12 minutes it was 2-0 as Greg McKittrick, also on the left, fed Damian Rosenthal who shot past his marker and then crossed very smartly for Dean Harding to slot away nicely at the far post.

The pattern continued after the break and after 59 minutes it was 3-0.

to be brought down by the exposed Peter Papouthis.

Harding then put away the penalty with the minimum of fuss. Dario Fernandez had one of the few real chances for Hurstville ten minutes later, but fired his shot across the face of goal.

Harding almost got his third in the 71st when outpacing the defence and it took a brilliant one-handed save by Mylonas to deny him. Moments later Greg Walley won an important tackle inside his own half and fed Mikulski who got away down the left and put in a cross for Harding to finish nicely after firstexchanging passes with Rosenthal who was up in support.

Substitute Spiro Kladis headed wide for the Minotaurs in the 80th, but by then the game was up.

In winning this and their Under 21 and Under 18 matches Manly maintained an unblemished recordfor their first four matches of the new campaign.

Just as impressive winners the same day, in a fixture at nearby Hammondville Park, were St George who also managed a 4-0 win, their success being at the expense of a luckless Moorebank.

>From the moment that a Stefan Janic free kick went through the combined defensive wall in the 20thminute the Saints had the game by the scruff of the neck.

Then, fifteen minutes later, it was 2-0 as a twice taken free kick ended up in the back of the Moorebank net. The first time Janic put it there, but he had not waited for the whistle and at the second attempt, Louis Dounis took the kick and found the self same spot in the roof of the net, after Janic had originally been brought down .

Lee Heselhurst was kept busy for Moorebank between the posts and was able to make a number of good saves. He got in the way of an Anthony Adamo near post shot in the 55th after the same player had been denied by the legs of defender.

The two keepers both played well, with St George striker Louis Dounis being denied by Matt Baillie, but also wayward with his finishing, especially in the second half.

A low, glancing header from Janic in the 74th saw the veteran striker net the third from the corner from the left by Mark Santarossa.

Janic then put another chance over the bar before completing his hat trick in the 90th with a low drive which the keeper got down to but could not grasp cleanly.

With their solid defence and potent strike force, barring a spate of injuries, this St George side looks the goods for this year now.

ROUND FIVE SUMMARY

Only one of the two planned Easter Sunday games was staged, with the undefeated St George perhaps fortunate to emerge unscathed from their tough game against Bathurst 75.

Saints dominated early on, but became leg weary and as the game progressed Bathurst looked by far the more likely to score.

They almost did, Scott Mutton being brought down and regular penalty taker Adam Collins fluffing his chance by lofting his spot kick well over the bar.

The two keepers both played well, with St George striker Louis Dounis being denied by Matt Baillie, but also wayward with his finishing, especially in the second half.

Mutton, by contrast, was through on goal several times and it needed some quick work by Trinity Allen to deny him, once with his feet and on other occasions with flying saves.

Stefan Janic had a sound game in an enforced deep lying role late in the game, while Ryan Toombs stood out in defence, with Giuseppe Serratore toiling hard in the midfield. Bathurst's best were keeper Baillie, Brad Gallard and Mutton.

At the finish it was a relieved Paul Carter, having taken himself off with a groin strain, who conceded that his side had played badly, but got away with a point his side barely deserved.

A C United's game against Hurstville City Minotaurs was washed out.

Monday saw two of the four matches called off, one at Arlington Oval after the Under 18s had already played.

Manly Warringah continued their strong form by demolishing Dulwich Hill 4-1 at a soggy Cromer Park.

Meanwhile Auburn United made their latest form look ridiculous with a comprehensive 5-1 win over the erratic Rockdale Suns.

Revelling in the muddy conditions Auburn were soon in front and responded to the urgings of new coach Henry Sobczyk who took over the previous Tuesday.

It is the former Polonia player's second stint at the largely Turkish-supported club, having done good work with them late last season, only to be left out of the picture at the start of the new season.

Immediately the old fox brought in one of the best players from 1997, Huseyin Beyhan, who had a spell with Sydney Olympic last term before sustaining a serious arm injury.

Beyhan got things moving when he caught Mark Afif in the Rockdale goal out of position and landed a lob from 30 yards to beat the unsuspecting keeper pointlessly.

Beyhan had just failed to connect with an earlier cross, but was playing as if he had never been away rather than having his first outing on months.

Auburn extended the lead in the 34th when the keeper cleared to the feet of Navid Varess 40 yards out and the talented midfielder strode through to beat the last defender and Afif with a cool finish.

Beyhan had just failed to connect with an earlier cross, but was playing as if he had never been away rather than having his first outing on months.

Beyhan beat the sluggish Rockdale defence to a through ball from deep by Cenk Elgun in the 40th and again did well with a polished finish to make it 3-0. A minute before the break a cross from the left by Gurdal Ozcan which appeared to have missed the goal and gone past the far post was unwittingly turned into his own net by a Rockdale defender.

Rockdale's only first half chance fell to John Manalopoulos whose shot froclose range was saved well by Haydar Arslan who doubles these days as both the regular custodian and the club's president.

In the second period Rockdale showed more urgency but Auburn were far from finished, though they slowed appreciably in the last ten minutes. Elgun burst through in the 71st and found Safet Catovic who shook off a challenge, took the ball to the byline under pressure and poked the ball in the net from a tight angle.

His free kick five minutes later was palmed away by the keeper.

Rockdale missed a twice taken penalty in the 80th, Manalopoulos having his first attempt saved and a second smacked against the angle of the upright. Finally in time added on Manalopoulos tested Arslan once too often and the ball, while saved, fell at the feet of Nick Kojdovski who slammed in the rebound.

It was a rude awakening for Rockdale

Division two Review

ROUND THREE SUMMARY

The big university derby at David Phillips Field was to have been the focus of the round, but the big wet put an end to the students' plans for a day of festivities in the first meeting between these sides in this division for decades

Hills United's Fred Caterson Reserve was awash and referee Steve Andrews had no alternative in calling off the local team's anticipated game with Hurstville ZSC, with both goalmouths under water.

The club is looking at a Wednesday night re-staging of the game at an early date.

Arncliffe struggled through the under 18 fixture against Mount Druitt before it became clear that the pitch was unplayable for the later games.

Sydney District's Camdenville Oval was looking bad for the early games, but in the end they were all called off, despite officials willing them to go ahead.

Mount Pritchard's match against Fraser Park was another to fall by the wayside as the much-envied surface was unfit for play and the groundsman was no doubt relieved to see his precious pitch protected.

And so to Bathurst Street Park, set as it is in the shadow of the big hill, the quarry-owned grass-banked escarpment overlooking the ground which lend this plateau-like place a picturesque setting.

With this backdrop Greystanes entertained leaders and hot title favourites Hajduk Wanderers with two of their players suspended and soon found themselves three down at the break. The well grassed surface was barely marked as the two sides went about their business under leaden skies.

The Wanderers got right on top from the outset and had to wait only until the 14th minute to hit the lead.

Paul Croci struck his second goal in as many games when he beat David Apps from close range.

Another 14 minutes had elapsed when the visitors made it 2-0.

Big striker Tony Krslovic, with Manly-Warringah last year, had his shot well saved by the brilliant Apps, but Stephen Scotti, following up, rammed home the rebound, with the ball nestling nicely in the bottom right corner of the net .

J J Ellul was able to slip the ball past Apps for the third, in the 32nd minute, after the long-time Greystanes custodian had been left hopelessly exposed and could do no more than try to narrow the angle for the shot.

Damien Brown set sail for goal five minutes after the restart and looked set to score, but unselfishly off-loaded the ball to the waiting Ellul who made it 4-0 with a simple finish.

Greystanes managed a few scoring attempts, but after getting into useful positions their finishing let them down badly.

With ten goals from their first three games and clean sheets in each of them the Hajduk side looks set to continue where they left off last season, dominating their matches and being hailed as premiers a long way from home.

Time will tell, but there do appear few likely challengers this time, now that last year's other unbeaten side Dulwich Hill, have been promoted.

FOURTH ROUND PREVIEW

Sydney University are going to give Hurstville ZSC a real game of it at St Paul's College Oval, on Saturday, where the first Second Division game in 32 years will be played at the ground.

The picturesque City Road ground is known by clubbies as Wembley due to its immaculate playing surface (although not as impressive as the Mounties' much envied Cook Park); it even has the Twin Towers overlooking its huge expanses (otherwise known as the Geography Dept).

The day will also see the long awaited unveiling of the club's new BBQ to further boost their infamous sausage sizzle reputation!

The college scarves will certainly wave if the students can put one over Hurstville, but that will be far from easy against one of the most attractive footballing teams in the division.

Belmore will not have things all their own way against Mount Pritchard at Blick Oval on Saturday either. A draw is expected in this game.

There should be much good football elsewhere this weekend, too, when Fraser Park and Arncliffe meet on Sunday at the old railway social club grounds in Marrickville and attack is sure to be the word on everyone's lips there.

Fraser could have the legs to take it out.

The Hills United and Greystanes clash may be a little more robust, but can still be a gem of a game at Fred Caterson Reserve. Hills could enhance their growing stature with a solid victory.

Mount Druitt will be happy with nothing less than maximum points against University of NSW at Popondetta Park.

Hajduk Wanderers are not going to treat Sydney District lightly at Hajduk Stadium in what they will see as another milepost on their way to a hoped-for title.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE EASTER ROUND-UP

Rounds 5+6

A weather-hit long weekend still saw many games take place, although only a few teams played the scheduled two games. Club by club, here is how your team fared.

Newcastle Breakers - Picked up twelve points in their round 5 clash with Eastern Suburbs, claiming victories 3-0 in G13's, 3-2 in G14's, 6-0 in G15's and 4-1 in G16's. This was to prove their only actin of the weekend, their scheduled round 6 tie with Leichhardt Tigers being washed out.

Leichhardt Tigers - Had a fruitless weekend, as both the games mentioned above against the Breakers as well as round 5 matches against Southern Districts were washed out.

Southern Districts - Another team not to kick a ball in anger on the long weekend, as their round 6 tie against the Gladesville Hornsby Association was also postponed.

Marconi Fairfield - The real winners of the long weekend. Marconi Fairfield not only played both rounds but also picked up eight wins out of eight.

Their round 5 clash at Marconi no 2 against the Central Coast saw the home side win 7-1 in G13's, 7-2 in G14's, 2-0 in G15's and 2-1 in G16's. This good work was carried on in the away at Southern Branch in round 6, picking up wins in G13's and G14's 3-1, 3-0 in G15's and 3-1 again in G16's.

Southern Branch - The round 6 losses to Marconi Fairfield were made worse by a round 5 performance at Sutherland Sharks. The Sharks proved too strong in all grades, winning 2-0 in G13's and G14's, 3-0 in G15's and 5-2 in G16's.

Sutherland Sharks - Maximum points in round 5 against Southern Branch were followed by two wins away at Sydney Olympic. Victories of 4-1 in G14's and 1-0 in G15's, were marred by the Sharks only two defeats of the weekend, 4-2 in G13's and 3-1 in G16's.

Sydney Olympic - The two victories over Sutherland were added to by another three wins for the weekend, this time in round 5 action against Manly Warringah Dolphins. A 3-2 reversal in the G13's was followed by good victories in the other grades - 5-0 in G14's, 4-1 in G15's and 5-2 in G16's.

Manly Warringah Dolphins - The three points the Dolphins collected from Sydney Olympic were all they had to show for the weekend, as the round 6 clash with Blacktown City was another game unfortunately washed out.

Blacktown City Demons - Although the round 6 matches with Manly Warringah Dolphins were washed out, the G13's stayed on top of the table courtesy of a 2-1 victory in round 5 over the Wollongong Wolves. Unfortunately, the other grades couldn't match the G13's, with the G14's going down 4-0, the G15's 1-0 and the G16's 4-1.

Wollongong Wolves - After taking nine points off the Demons, the Wolves entertained Sydney United in round 6 and claimed another four points. A fine 2-0 win in G13's and a 1-1 draw in G15's got the Wolves their points, although United took G14's 3-1 and G16's 1-0.

Sydney United - 7 points in round 6 against the Wolves added nicely onto the 7 points in round 5 against Parramatta Eagles. United started badly losing the G13's 3-0, but picked up to take the G14's 4-1 and the G16's 5-2, with a 0-0 draw in the G15's.

Central Coast - The Coasties unfortunately picked up nothing from the weekend, losing the four round 5 matches to Marconi Fairfield and seeing their home clash with Eastern Suburbs being washed out for round 6.

Eastern Suburbs - It was a similar weekend to the Coasties for Eastern Suburbs - the clash between the two teams being washed out and like the Coasties, in the game the Wanderers did play they were unable to pick up any points against the Newcastle Breakers.

Gladesville Hornsby - apart from their washed out match against Southern Districts, 7 points against Macarthur Rams in their round 5 tie were picked up. A 1-1 draw in G13's was followed by a 3-1 reverse in G14's, then a 5-1 win in G15's and a 3-0 win in G16's.

Macarthur Rams - picked up four points as mentioned above against Gladesville Hornsby, then entertained Parramatta Eagles in round 6 action. This was another tight one, with the Rams picking up two wins from the four games, 1-0 in G14's and 4-0 in G15's. The Eagles picked up the G13's 3-0 and the G16's 1-0.

Parramatta Eagles - Two wins from Macarthur Rams in round 6 and a win and a draw from their round 5 tussle with Sydney United meant it was a solidweekend for the Eagles.

Division One Youth league Coverage

Round 4

There was two round scheduled for the Easter weekend but unfortunately a number of games were washed out in both rounds.

In round 4 the games between Bonnyrigg and Penrith Panthers and St George and Rockdale City Suns fell victim to the wet weather.

No such problem for Hills United though, who picked up 10 points from their away clash with Fairfield Bulls. 4-0 in G13, 7-2 in G14 and 5-1 in G15's looked to be giving Hills a clean sweep, but the Bulls grabbed a point with a 1-1 draw in G16's.

It was a similar story at Illawara, as the Lions picked up three wins and a draw from Canterbury Association. The Association's only joy came via a 1-1 draw in G14's, but the home side took the G13's 5-0, 3-1 in the G15's and 1-0 in the G16's.

AC United were yet another team to pick up three wins and a draw, this time over Canterbury Marrickville. AC took the G13's 8-0, the G14's 11-2 and the G16's, although Canterbury Marrickville's G15's picked up a point in a 1-1 G15's draw.

Ryde City and Bankstown Association shared the spoils at Macquarie University, Ryde taking the G14's and G16's 1-0, but going down 2-1 in G13's and 2-0 in G15's.

Blacktown Association and Stanmore Hawks was another close one, Blacktown taking the G13's 2-0 and the G15's 4-0, but Stanmore took the G16's 4-1 and there was a 1-1 in G14's.

Round 5

The games between AC United - Bankstown Association, Stanmore Hawks - Bonnyrigg White Eagles and Hills United and Canterbury Association all fell victim to the weather, as did Rockdale City Suns clash with Fairfield Bulls.

The Suns played the first two grades, winning the G13's 2-0 with a 0-0 draw in G14's, but that was it for the day's play.

No such problem for Blacktown Association who picked up maximum points from Canterbury Marrickville, winning G13's 11-1, G14's 3-1, G15's 2-0 and G16's 3-1.

Honours were shared at the BHP Sports Ground between Illawara Lions and Ryde City, as the Lions took the G13's 5-0 and the G16's 4-2, but Ryde took both the G14's and G15's 2-0.

The day's other game saw Penrith Panthers take on St George, and while the Saints took G13's 4-2, Penrith took the other grades 3-1 in G14's, 4-1 in G15's and 2-0 in G16's.

Cadet League Easter coverage - Division One Round Two

Leichhardt Tigers started the Easter weekend with a bang, securing a 5-1 victory over the Bonnyrigg White Eagles in G11 action.

While St George enjoyed a bye Marconi Fairfield were disposing of Parramatta City 7-0 in G11 and 4-1 in G12, while the other Parramatta team, the Eagles, were also involved in two high-scoring games against Sydney United.

Like their near neighbours though, the Eagles were also unable to pick up any points, losing G11 3-2 and G12 6-3.

Canterbury Marrickville and Ryde City completed the round 2 action, with Canterbury Marrickville taking maximum points with a 4-0 victory in G11's and 1-0 in G12's.

Division One Round Three

While Parramatta City enjoyed the bye, unfortunately Leichhardt Tigers clash with Marconi Fairfield fell foul of the weather, as did Sydney United's tie with Eastern Suburbs.

Some games were played however, Macarthur Rams and Canterbury Marrickville picking up a win each, 2-0 to the Rams in G12 and 3-0 to Canterbury Marrickville in G11. Ryde beat Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3-1 in G11, and St George beat Parramatta eagles 3-0 in G11 and 1-0 in G12.

Cadet League Division Two Easter coverage

Round 4

Macquarie Sports and Hajduk Wanderers joined Stanmore Hawks in sitting out the round after their clash was washed out. Illawara Lions were in no mood to sit anything out however, beating Mt Pritchard 9-0 in G11 and 2-0 in G12. Hawksbury City looked on course for big victories too after taking the G11 6-0 over Mt Druitt Town, but Mt Druitt came back to take the G12's 4-0.

There was close games between Hills United and AC United, Hills just snatching both games 2-0 in G11's and 2-01 in G12's. Penrith Panthers went to Hurstville City and took the G11's 4-2 and G12's 2-0, while at Moorebank Sports there was a 2-2 clash in G11 and a 3-1 victory to CSI Schofield's in G12.

Round 5

The bad weather meant there were two wash-outs in round 5 action, with the clashes between Macquarie Sports and Mt Pritchard and Hawkesbury City and Hurstville City being called off. Add to this Hajduk Wanderers with the bye and there were a number of ideal teams on the weekend.

Stanmore Hawks took full advantage though, defeating Moorebank Sports 3-1 in G11's and 5-1 in G12's, while CSI Schofields also picked up two wins, 3-2 in G11's and 3-0 in G12's against Mt Druitt Town.

There was two draws between Penrith Panthers and Hills United, 0-0 in G11's and 3-3 in G12's, while Illawara Lions continude their fine start to the season, 3-1 in G11's and 4-2 in G12's against AC United.

after a big win on Saturday, but Auburn are off the mark at last and looking more the team of old, thanks to new mentor Sobczyk and his revitalised team.

Manly Warringah took 16 minutes to find the net at Cromer Park against an out of touch Dulwich Hill.Tom Mikulski's cross was nodded down by Damian Rosenthal in the path of top scorer Dean Harding, who fired the ball past goalie Peter Trajcevski.

Four minutes later Rosenthal put the Dolphins two up after a very fast counter attack and a solo run.

Mikulski made it 3-0 with a good, strong header from a well flighted cross in the 44th for a handy half time lead.

Harding is gaining a reputation as a prolific scorer this term and like most in-form strikers he is only too happy to add to his growing tally by taking the team's penalties and he did so in the 77th to put Manly 4-0 up.Dulwich got on the scoresheet in the 84th when substitute David Pascuzzo found the net, ironically against the club that his father Mick has long been associated with in a variety of official positions.

The win only confirms the Dolphins' title credentials while throwing promoted Dulwich Hill a message that some team strengthening may soon be required.

ROUND SIX PREVIEW

Bathurst return from a Sydney visit which yielded a valuable point from a game against St George in conditions which were alien to them. Their own Alec Lamberton Park surface is hard and bouncy and on Sunday it was a boggy pitch that confronted them, so they will relish being back on home soil this weekend.

The high bounce will also be familiar to Saturday's visitors Stanmore Hawks who are in need of some points after an erratic start. Their recent loss at Rockdale was a setback and this country visit will test them fully. A few players have been out so it may be a much better side that travels West and they may be able to steal maximum points from the well disciplined home side. The day off on Monday may also help them to re-focus.

The derby game at Hurstville Oval between hosts the Minotaurs and St George is bound to be keenly contested and the match looms as a possible low scoring draw, St George have the strikers, but it may be the introduction of a third player to the two-pronged attack spearheaded by the Louis Dounis and Stefan Janic combo that could unsettle the highly motivated Minotaurs.

A strong Saints' defence should ensure that the home team is unable to score the goals they would need to win the game, but the question will be whether Dounis and company can be at their top. They clicked at Auburn and Moorebank but this is a lot trickier. A draw seems the obvious forecast.

Rockdale meet Penrith at the Ilinden Soccer Centre on Sunday with another win sorely needed to satisfy their expectant supporters. It will be a hard one to win, but the Suns should be good enough this time, with a reminder of what their last home efforts produced.

Dulwich Hill are going to have a few players back for the visit of A C United at Arlington Oval and a win is on the cards here if they can tighten that fragile defence.

Illawarra Lions will be ready to upset the form book with a win over Manly Warringah at Ian McLellan Park, providing they can cope with the fast runners from the northern beaches. By the same token, the Dolphins must find an answer to the formidable partnership of striking cousins Peter Antonopoulos and Jim Melissourgos who destroyed Dulwich last weekend.

A Lions win is bravely tipped by us to end the Manly run of success.

Moorebank will be out to win their first match at home when they tackle an improving Auburn at Hammondville Park. Auburn are not the most consistent of teams at the best of times, but would expect to prevail here and their coach Henry Sobczyk is bound to have something left up his sleeve for this assignment.
